

Can you write a magic potion? What do you want your potion to do? Make sure you include the powerful unicorn horn!

When we write, we start by getting all our ideas out. We can then pick the best ones. Follow these writing tips and you will soon have lots of wonderful ideas to write your potion.

Writing tip 1.

When I was thinking about my ingredients, I thought of all the words related to 'love' that I could and jotted them down. That might be a good place start. Write ideas about your potion.

Writing tip 2.

This potion recipe is a form of instructional writing. When we write instructions, we use 'imperative verbs' to tell the reader what to do. It can be helpful to write a list of these too.

Writing tip 3.

Recipes need all sorts of 'quantities' for the reader to measure the ingredients. To make your spell or potion more interesting, you could also gather some of these words before you start.

Would you like your potion to heal something such as a broken leg, heart or a help cure a cold? Or you could think about something positive that you would like to be able to do like fly, go invisible or speak to animals.

Now have a go at writing and decorating your potion.
