

What you are - using metaphors

Now we have warmed ourselves up, let's try something that requires you to really think hard. Again, you have to try to make each idea different and not repeat yourself. Remember to name things so that you write Skoda rather than car if you want to suggest it's not posh. In this poem, we are going to write another list of playful ideas, using the phrase You are . In my example, I started by writing a list of similes:

You are like a cat ...

Then I removed the word 'like' and wrote what is called a metaphor. Again, you may well know about these:

You are a cat ...
