

Now for some grammar

Before you write your log, let's practise some sentences that will help you to write like an explorer.

More detail please

★ You can add detail to your sentences by using the simple joining words and or but. For example:

1. I trudged through the dense forest and collected samples of the plant life.
2. I tried to catch a fish but they were too fast for me.

Create sentences about your jungle and add detail using and or but.

Add in 'When'

★ The log uses sentence signposts to tell the reader when something happened in the journey. The ones used in the log are known technically as 'fronted adverbials' – adverbs (or phrases beginning with adverbs) that are placed at the front of sentences to show us WHEN. These include:

First, Next, After that, Then, Afterwards, After a while, Finally, When ... ,

For example:

1. Next, I trekked to a clearing and found a beautiful plunge pool.
2. Finally, I headed back to camp because the sun began to set.

Redraft your sentences, using fronted adverbials to show WHEN things happened.
