

Activity 17: extension writing choices

You are not finished yet! There are lots of different bits of writing you could do if you are enjoying this unit. You could even create and illustrate a whole booklet about your chosen creature:

- Write another report about a different mythological creature (ogre, giant, phoenix, dragon, goblin)
- Write a fact-file for your chosen creature
- Write a story about your chosen creature, using your ideas from the passport. What would happen if you found your creature hiding in your house or flat?
- Write a newspaper report about a sighting of your creature
- Write up an interview with an elf or sprite
- Write a set of Instructions for How to trap a ...
- Write an explanation about how a dragon's fire works
- Write a discussion, 'Should Elves be allowed to live locally?'
- Write an advert for a goblin hunter
- Design a WANTED poster calling on the public to help hunt down and capture a dragon or goblin on the loose before it is too late. You might want to include:
 - ★ A reward
 - ★ Who to contact if they see the monster
 - ★ What the monster has done – why they are dangerous
 - ★ Where they were last spotted

Book recommendations

If you enjoyed this unit then here are some exciting books:

- 'Podkin One-Ear' by Kieran Larwood
- 'Brightstorm' by Vashti Hardy
- 'Artemis Fowl' by Eoin Colfer
- 'Sky Song' by Abi Elphinstone;
- 'Cogheart' by Peter Bunzl
- 'Malamander' by Thomas Taylor.