

happy

excited

nervous

sad

worried

pleased

cheerful

calm

relaxed

Choose the feeling from the word bank that best describes how you feel about returning to school and create an acrostic poem to think about why you feel this way. Write the letters of the feeling you have chosen down the left-hand side of the page and use each letter as the start of a new line.

